ALLEGED RAPE CASE.

Business and Editorial Office 524 JOHN A. BLYTHE ARRESTED ON COUNTY DEMOCRATS PREPAR-A SERIOUS CHARGE

> Girl-Polics Work Up the Case and Think They Have Sufficient Proof.

> John A. Blythe was arrested yesterday n a charge of assault with intent to commit rape. The case is more remark able as his alleged victim is a 6-year-old girl by the name of Rhoda Chandier. The count given of the affair by Mrs. Ogas follows: About a week ago she ticed a stranger in the alley in which her house stands, in the rear of the Wey ho-tel. He seemed to be making friends with the little girl and at first no attention was paid to him. But the stranger came again and again in the ovening, and one night Mrs. Ogden saw him sitting on a door step in a rather eark corner in front of the house, the child sitting on his lap.

The other part of the park has been fenced off so that ladies and children can enjoy the grounds and the lake apart from the race track if they so desire.

Uintah county's claim against the state

Untah county's claim against the state for juror and winess fees and mileage in criminal cases from Jan. & to June 18, and amounting to $1.35.10, was filed yesterday with State Auditor Richards. Inasmuch as the service for which the reimbursement is claimed covers only one term of court, the bill seems rather large, but the cost of criminal prosecutions in that remote section of the state is naturally abnormal in comparison to similar claims from other countles. If the claim is found to be correct the state auditor will draw a warrent on the treasury for its payment.

The case of Charles Hetsch, who gave his name as John Bullis when arrested, was called in police court yesterday. He is charged with assault and battery alleged to have been committed upon the person of John Maccono, an Italian who keeps a fruit stand at the theatre corner. Hetsch is alleged to have struck Maccono in the face with a bistol and when the case was called yesterday Maccono was unable to appear, and a continuance was granted the prosecution. From the statement made in court, Maccono's injuries are more serious than at first supposed. The force of the blow fractured the right cheek bone and also badly becrated the skin about that part of the face.

PRIMARIES TOMORROW.

ING FOR ACTION.

Victim of the Affair a Six-year-old Getting Ready For the Convention of July 7-General John Lu Taylor Says the Republican Party Has No Head.

> Democrats outside the city are preparing for the convention which will be held July 7, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the position of superintendent of county schools. Calls are being posted throughout the county and some have been forwarded for publication.

The Democrats of Sugar precinet will hold a primary on Monday evening. June 27, at the Central school building, for the purpose of selecting seven delegates, and urge every Democrat in the precinct to attend the primary.

The Democrats of Forest Dale will meet in the Forest Dale schoolhouze the same evening, June 27, for the purpose of electing six delegates and also pose of electing six delegates and also request a full attendance.

There are two or three candidates for the place. Superintendent Van Cott and Professor Paul being prominently mentioned. The convention will be held in the Murray Opera House GENERAL TAYLOR SPEAKS.

General John Lu Taylor, mentioned

as a candidate for congress, takes a very gloomy view of the Republican situation in this state, and intimates that there is no chance for the success of the party in Utah because of the manner in which business has been of the party in Utah because of the manner in which business has been manipulated. General Taylor has written a letter to The Herald, in which he sets forth his views as follows:

Editor Herald: In your issue of the 23rd, in the "Political Arena" you say that I am out of the race for congress and all on account of my recent family troubles. Now you are mistaken. I would not let a little thing like that trouble me in the least if other conditions were right. I do not think that my enemies could make it much more unpleasant for me than I could for them. I would be willing to take my chances on that at least.

chances on that at least.

I am out of the race, however, for better and more substantial reasons. In fact, the very best of reasons, and those are that the branch of the Republican party to which I have always belonged has no official head, or organization in the state, and therefore, unless the party should be organized and given a party should be organized and given a head I could receive no nomination or recognition which would entitle me to the support of my party. The Dooly wing, or faction, of the so-called Republican party in this state is not the sort of Republican party to which I, and my friends, belong. That wing, or faction, is the aggregation to which Glen Miller, United States marshai, Postmaster A. I. Thomas and Whittemore belong. All three of these ignored the national Republican platform in reference to the financial plank in 1896. Thomas was the chairman of the committee which brought before the convention at Mount Pleasant a report refusing to adopt the financial plank of the national platform and Glen Miller and Whittemore both supported it and and Whittemore both supported it and defeated the few true Republicans in the convention, who sought to have the financial policy of the party in national convention assembled, endorsed. My position on the question in the convention, and during the campaign, is well known. Then again, Whittemore wenton, and during the campaign, is well known. Then again, Whittemore labored very zealously on the day of the Ogden convention to induce myself and others to support Mr. Holbrook, the Bryan candidate for congress, which we refused to do.

defamation as party leaders and from which they will never be able to ascend to that high pinnacle of political virtue they now imagine themselves surmounting. Respectfully, virtue they now imagine themselve surmounting. Respectfully, JOHN LU TAYLOR.
